

Howdy neighbors!

Portland Farmers Market invites you to experience farm-fresh flavors, family-friendly entertainment and seasonal events at this weekly community gathering in the heart of your neighborhood.

We welcome 750 shoppers per week at our Northwest Market with 22 ready to eat, value-added and farm vendors.

May we help you?

Community groups are welcome to table at four markets throughout Portland.
Contact us to schedule a date.

Sponsorships!

Let us know when you have an event to advertise. We can trade social media or host an event. We continually seek partners for imaginative collaborations - keep us in mind throughout the year!

How can you help us?

Shop the market!

Stop by to stock up on the freshest, healthiest food you can find. Bring friends & family to visit over a meal. Enjoy live music, sample seasonal flavors, and keep your dollars local.

Give your neighbors more healthy food!

Contribute to Fresh Exchange, and help match the dollars that SNAP recipients spend on farm-fresh food.

Spread the word!

We are always on the lookout for places to display our posters. Let us know about calendars & newsletters that could include a market mention.
